

V.I.T.R.I.O.L.

A Masonic Journal

to help guide you to greater understanding of yourself and Freemasonry

Table of Contents

The Chamber of Reflection	5
What drew me to Freemasonry?	6
Why do I feel Freemasonry is a good fit for me - even though I have not become a member yet?	7
As you sit in darkness, what are you thinking about right now? What concerns do you have? What excites you?	8
Notes	9
Entered Apprentice Degree	11
What stood out for me the most in my Entered Apprentice degree was...	12
The message I took away from the Entered Apprentice Degree was...	13
Reflecting on my Obligation, I think the most important message is:	14
During the charity lecture, I was asked to give but couldn't. To me, that means...	15
The working tools of an Entered Apprentice are the 24 inch gauge and the common gavel. From these tools, I have learned...	16
After having experienced this degree, what questions do you have? Are there areas you did not understand? What questions do you have for your coaches and mentor?	17
Take this chance to travel to other lodges. How has this changed your thoughts about Masonry?	18
How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry?	19
Notes	20
Fellowcraft Degree	22
What stood out for me the most in my Fellowcraft degree was...	23

The message I took away from the Fellowcraft Degree was...

24

While there were many similarities to the Obligation in the former degree, I think the unique point of this Obligation is:

25

This lecture discusses the men of Gilead. What lesson did you learn from them?

26

The working tools of a Fellowcraft are the plumb, the square, and the level. From these tools, I have learned...

27

After having experienced this degree, what questions do you have? Are there areas you did not understand? What questions do you have for your coaches and mentor?

28

Take this chance to travel to other lodges. How has this changed your thoughts about Masonry?

29

How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry?

30

Notes

31

Master Mason Degree

33

What stood out for me the most in my Master Mason degree was...

34

The message I took away from the Master Mason Degree was...

35

Another Degree, another Obligation that builds upon the others. What do you think is the most important message in this Obligation?

36

You had the honor of representing the Grand Master throughout the most important lesson of this Degree. What did you learn?

37

The working tools of a Master Mason are all of the tools but more especially the trowel. From this tool, I have learned...

38

After having experienced this degree, what questions do you have? Are there areas you did not understand? What questions do you have for your coaches and mentor?

39

Considering all three Degrees together, what questions do you still have? What have you yet to understand? What would you like to know more about? 40

Take this chance to travel to other lodges. How has this changed your thoughts about Masonry? 41

How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry? 42

Notes 43

A Time of Reflection 45

Does whatever drew you to Masonry still remain as part of why you are a Mason? 46

Do you feel that you are still a good fit for Masonry after having received your Master Mason degree? 47

As you sat in darkness, not knowing what to expect, how can you help other candidates for Masonry best prepare themselves for this experience? 48

When you were going through your Degrees, the lodge members acted as your mentors and coaches. How can you say thank you to the lodge for their help? How can you help mentor and coach new candidates and members? 49

After coaching and mentoring, how has your perspective on Freemasonry changed? 50

One of the toughest experience for a Mason can be attending a Masonic funeral. If you have attended one, what did you take away from this experience? 52

Your Thoughts and Notes 55

The Chamber of Reflection

Entered Apprentice Degree

Date: _____

Worshipful Master: _____

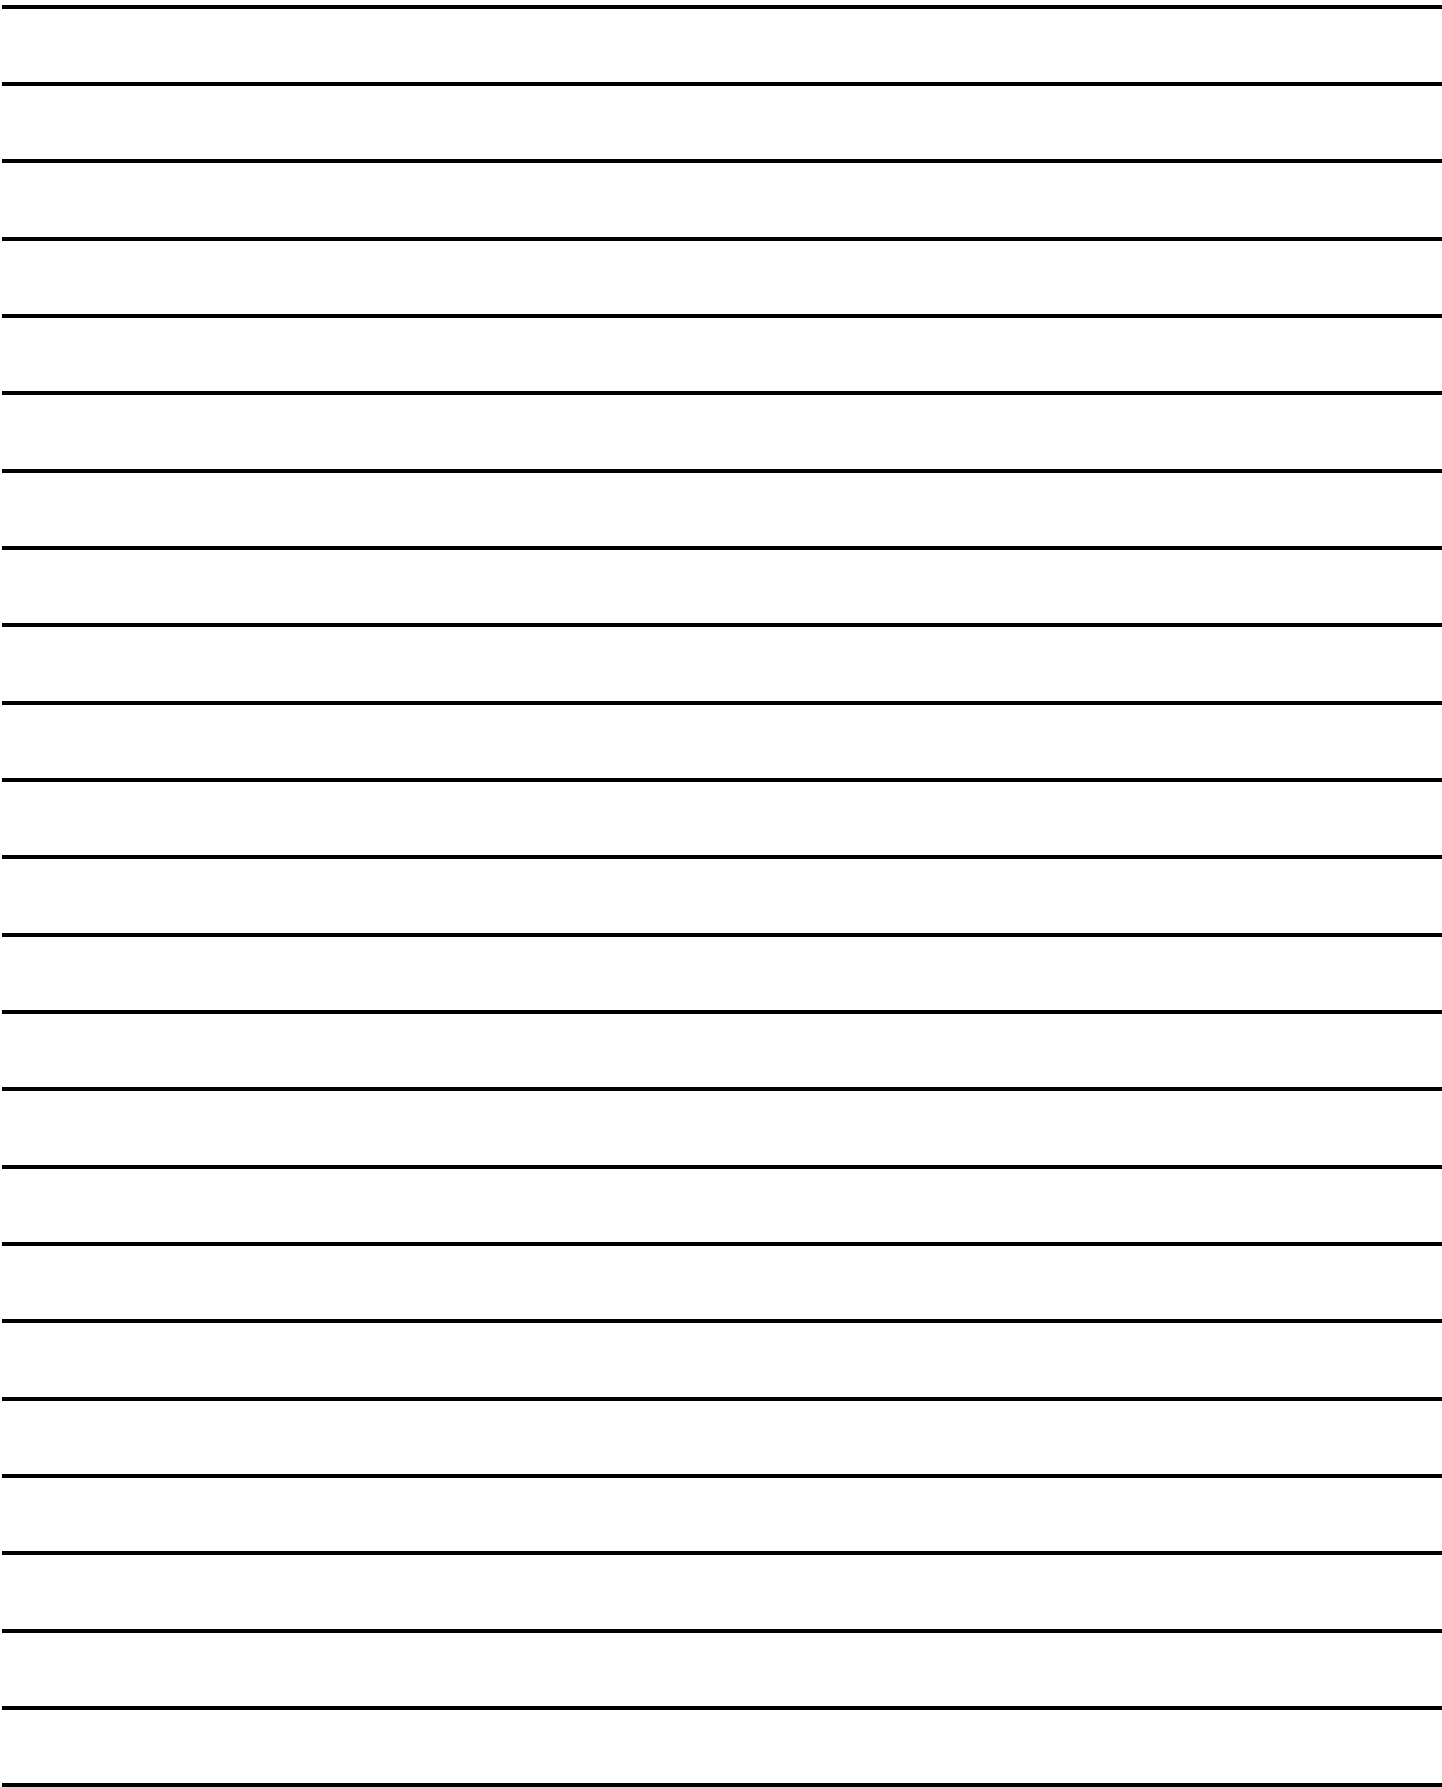

Senior Warden: _____

Junior Warden: _____

Mentor: _____

Coaches: _____

How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry?

Fellowcraft Degree

Date: _____

Worshipful Master: _____

Senior Warden: _____

Junior Warden: _____

Coaches: _____

What stood out for me the most in my Fellowcraft degree was...

This lecture discusses the men of Gilead. What lesson did you learn from them?

The working tools of a Fellowcraft are the plumb, the square, and the level. From these tools, I have learned...

Take this chance to travel to other lodges. How has this changed your thoughts about Masonry?

How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry?

Notes

Master Mason Degree

Date: _____

Worshipful Master: _____

Senior Warden: _____

Junior Warden: _____

Coaches: _____

The message I took away from the Master Mason Degree was...

Another Degree, another Obligation that builds upon the others. What do you think is the most important message in this Obligation?

The working tools of a Master Mason are all of the tools but more especially the trowel. From this tool, I have learned...

After having experienced this degree, what questions do you have? Are there areas you did not understand? What questions do you have for your coaches and mentor?

Considering all three Degrees together, what questions do you still have? What have you yet to understand? What would you like to know more about?

How has participating with the Brothers outside of the lodge changed your thoughts about Masonry?

Lined writing area consisting of 25 horizontal lines.

A Time of Reflection

Does whatever drew you to Masonry still remain as part of why you are a Mason?

Do you feel that you are still a good fit for Masonry after having received your Master Mason degree?

When you were going through your Degrees, the lodge members acted as your mentors and coaches. How can you say thank you to the lodge for their help? How can you help mentor and coach new candidates and members?

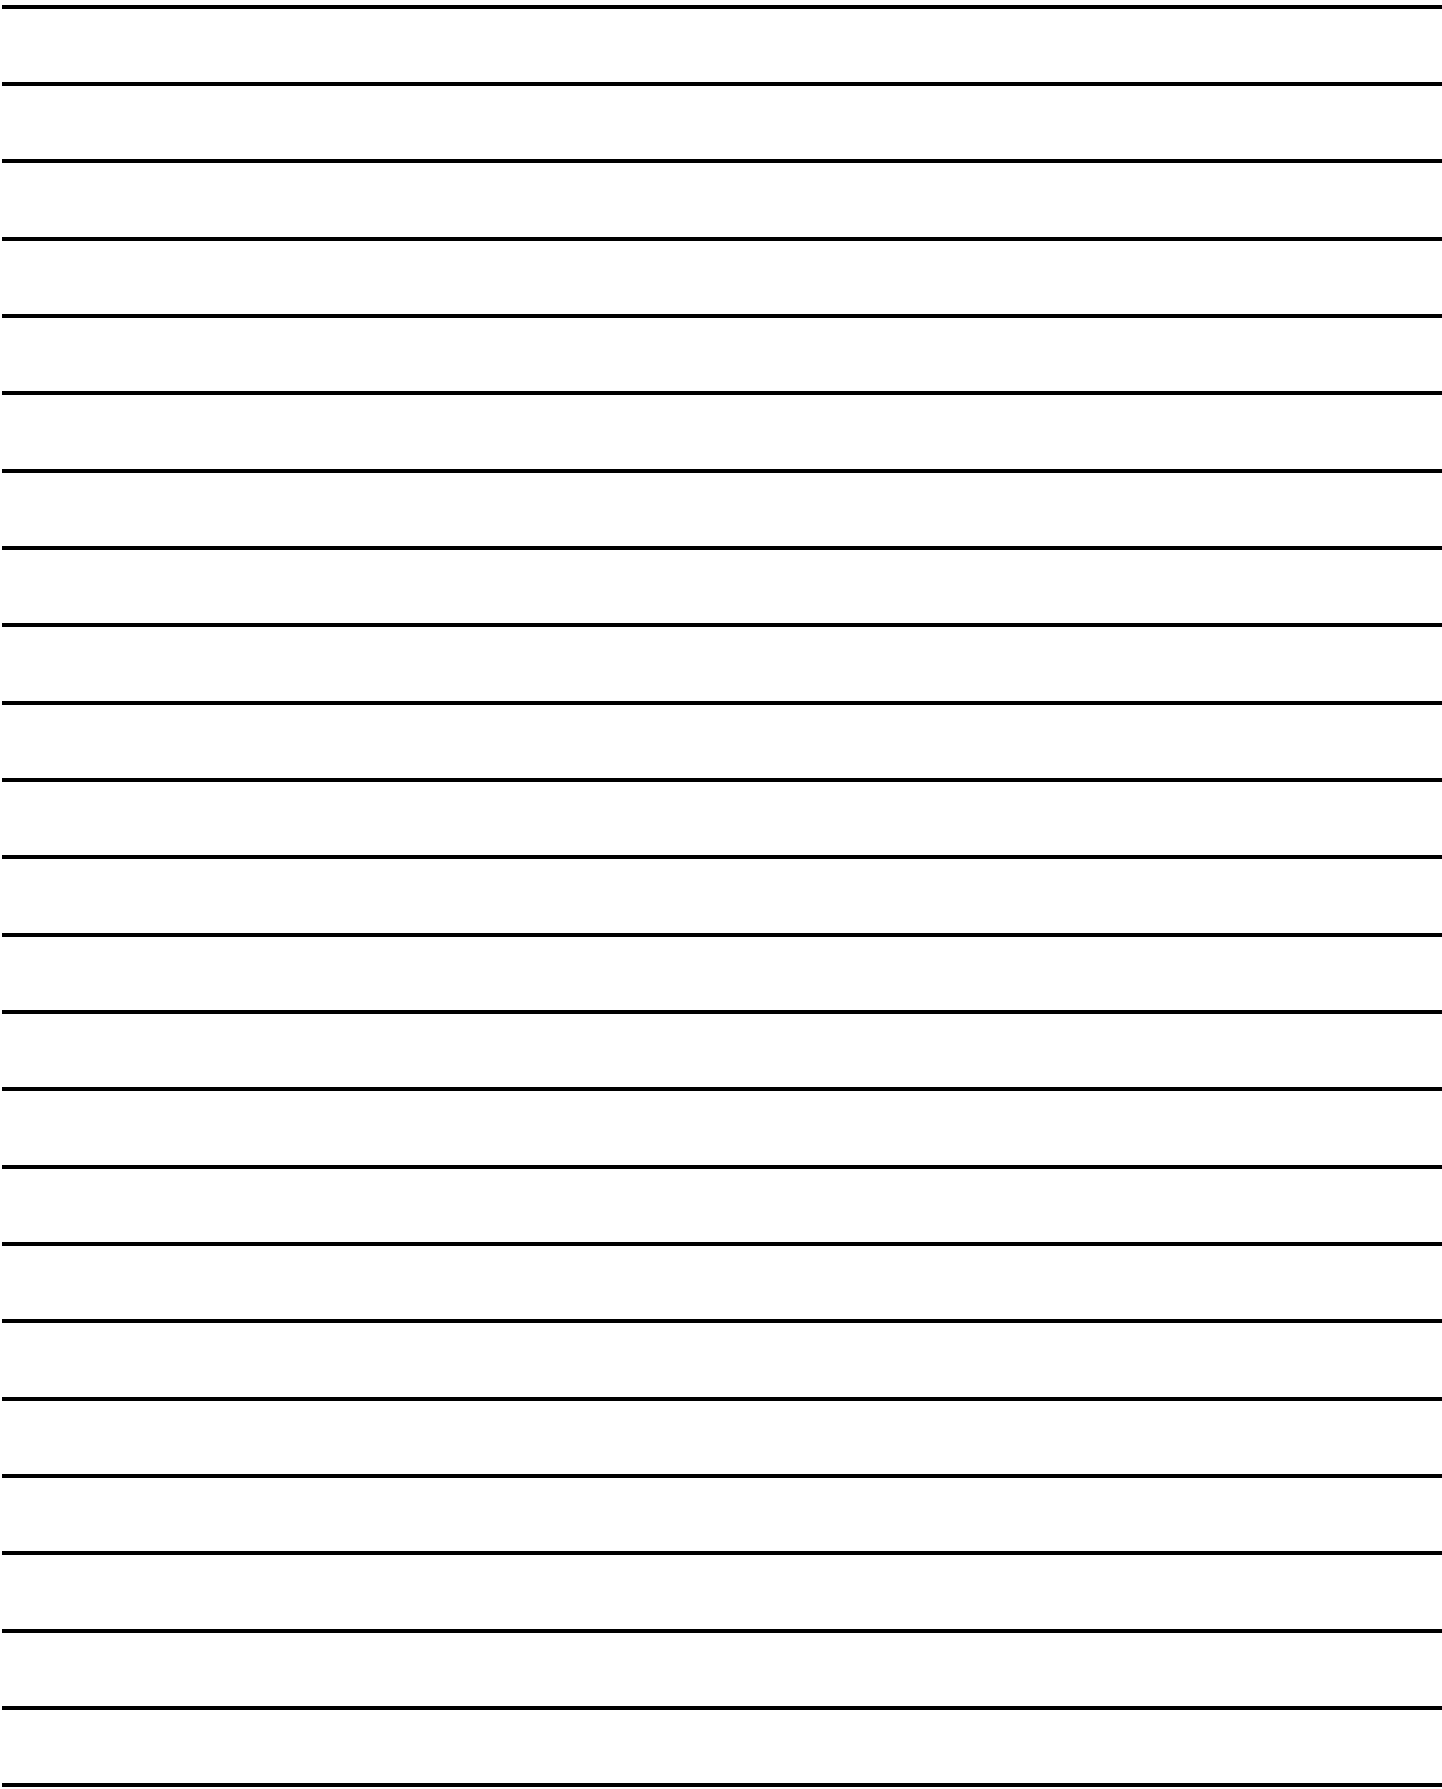

After coaching and mentoring, how has your perspective on Freemasonry changed?

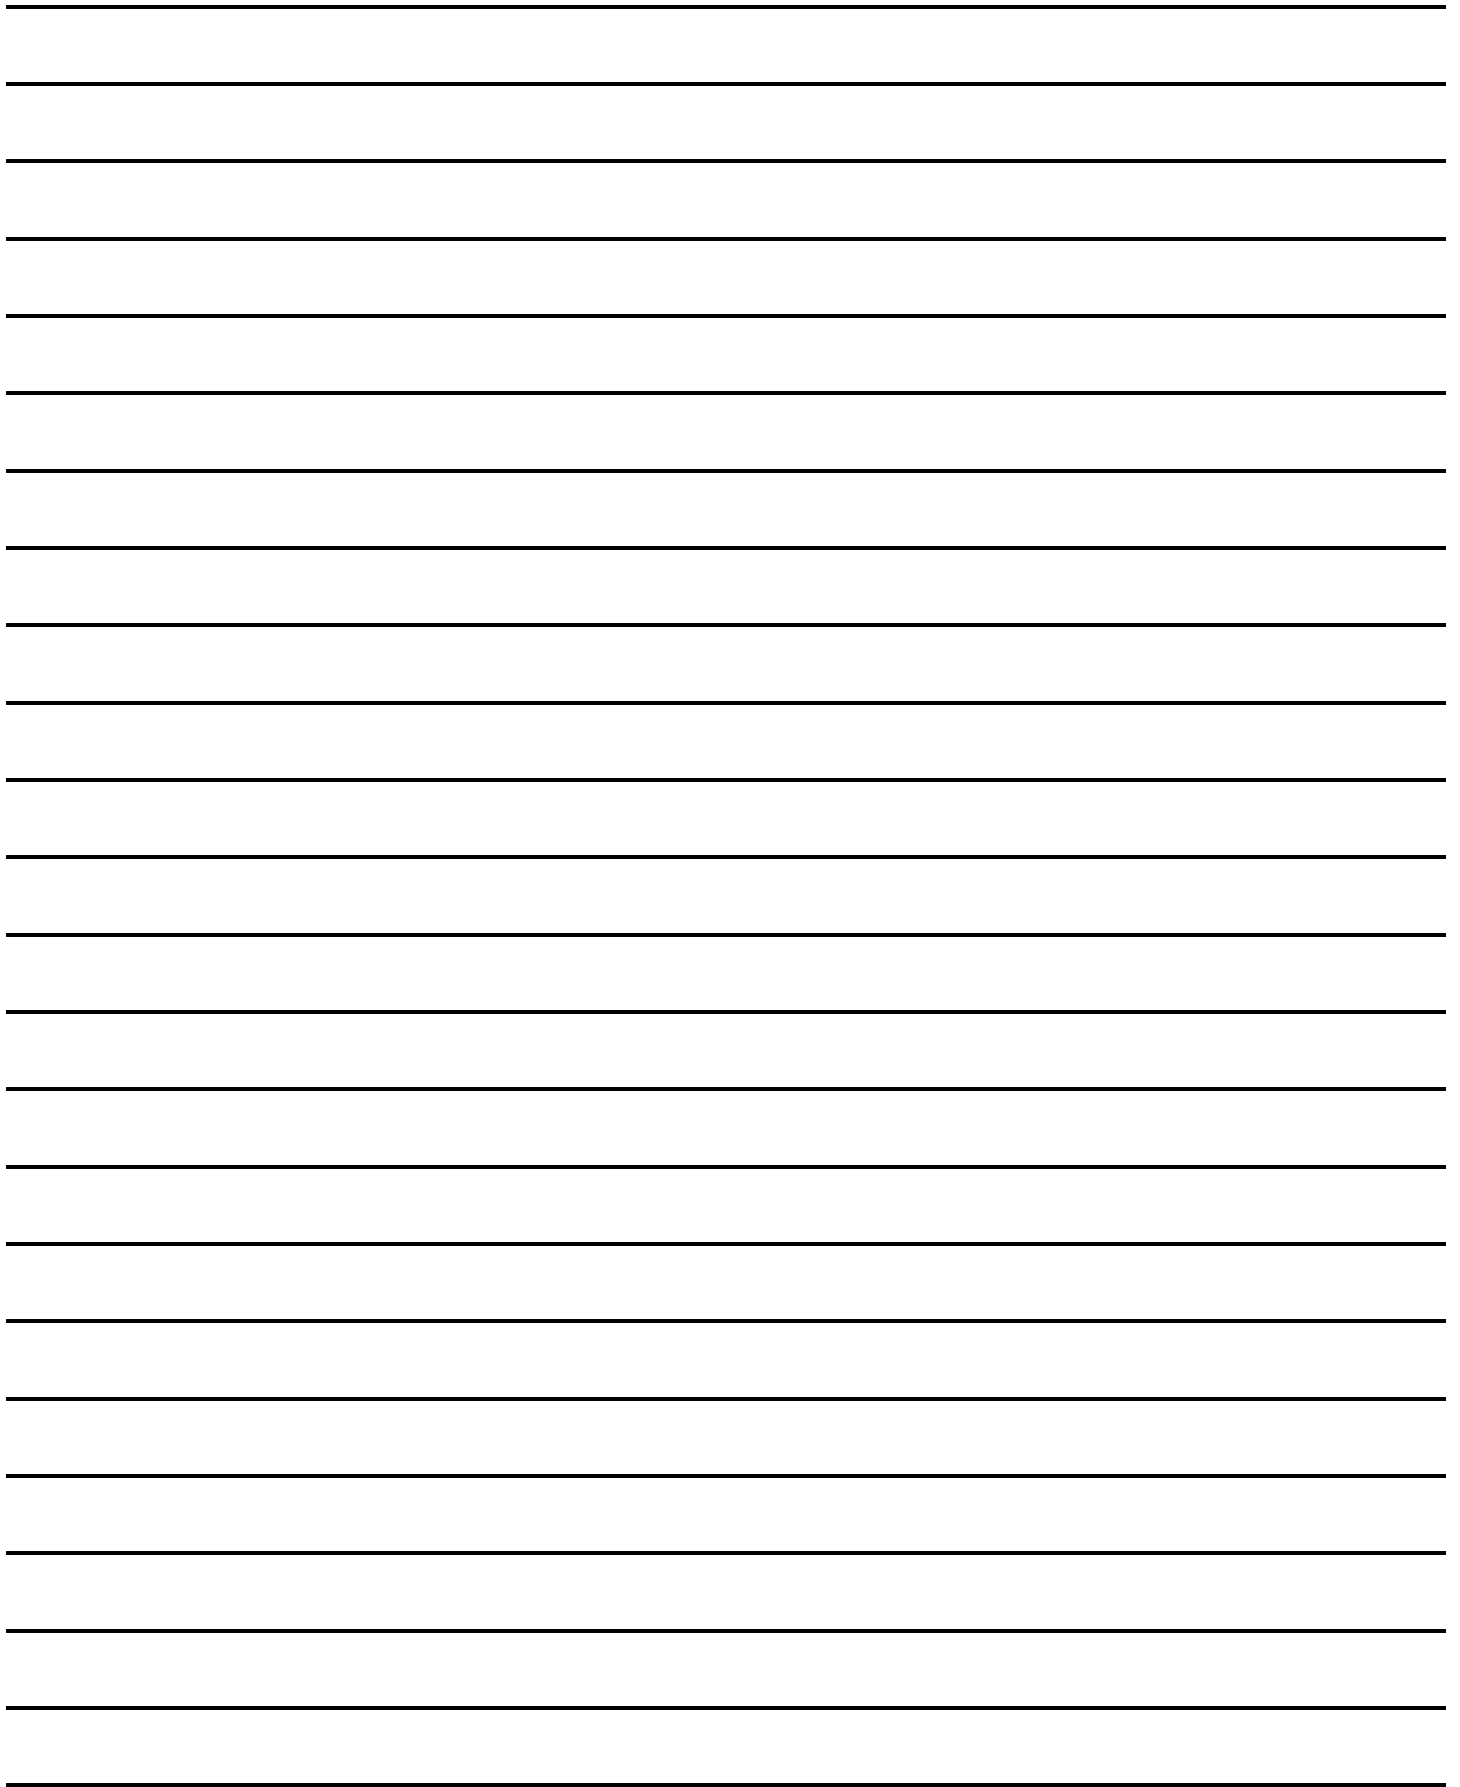

Freemasons believe in preserving light. How can you help the lodge preserve the light of knowledge?

One of the toughest experience for a Mason can be attending a Masonic funeral. If you have attended one, what did you take away from this experience?

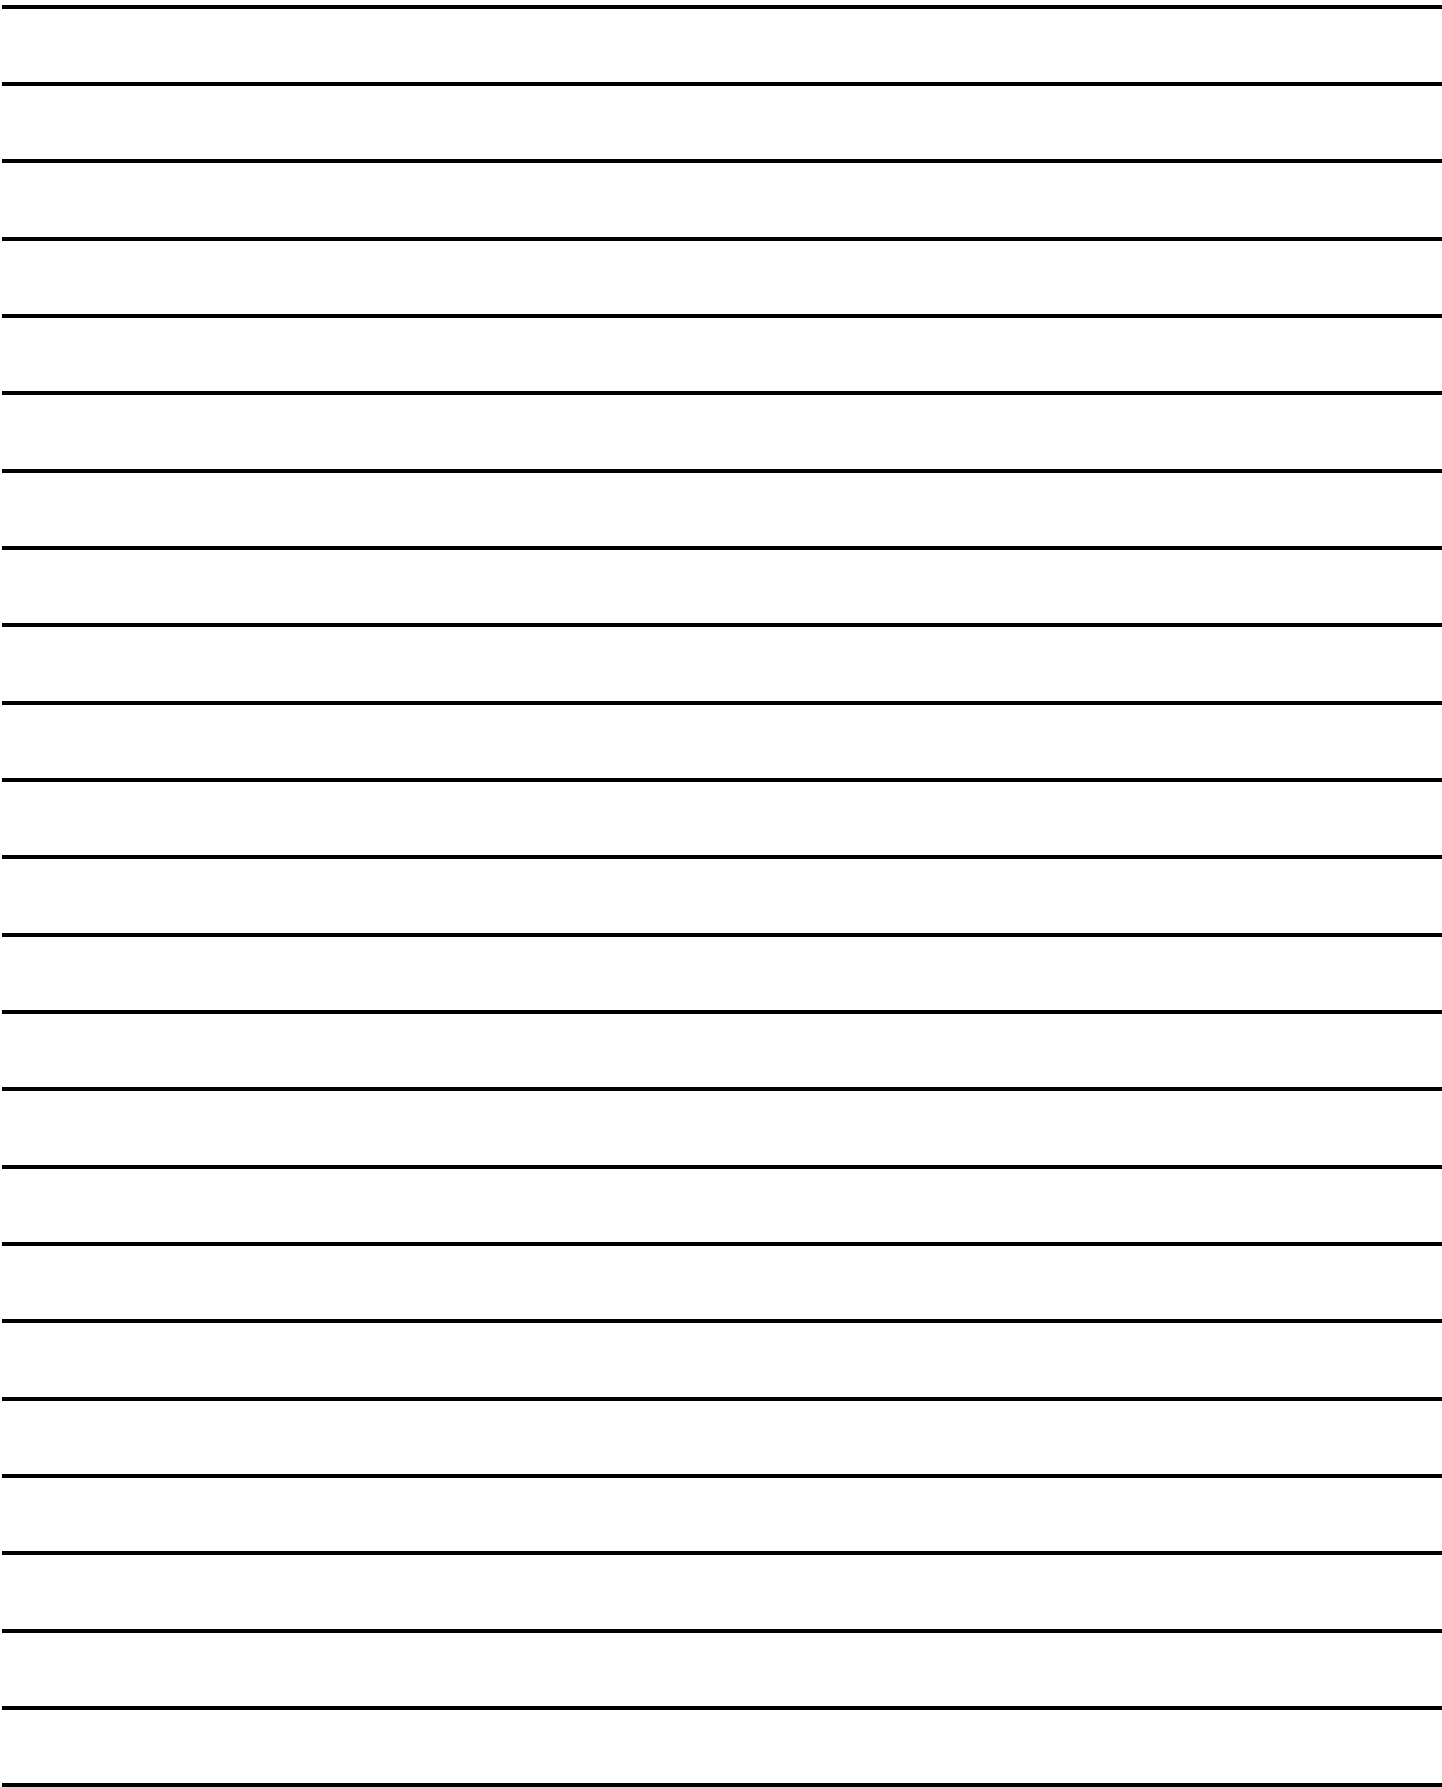

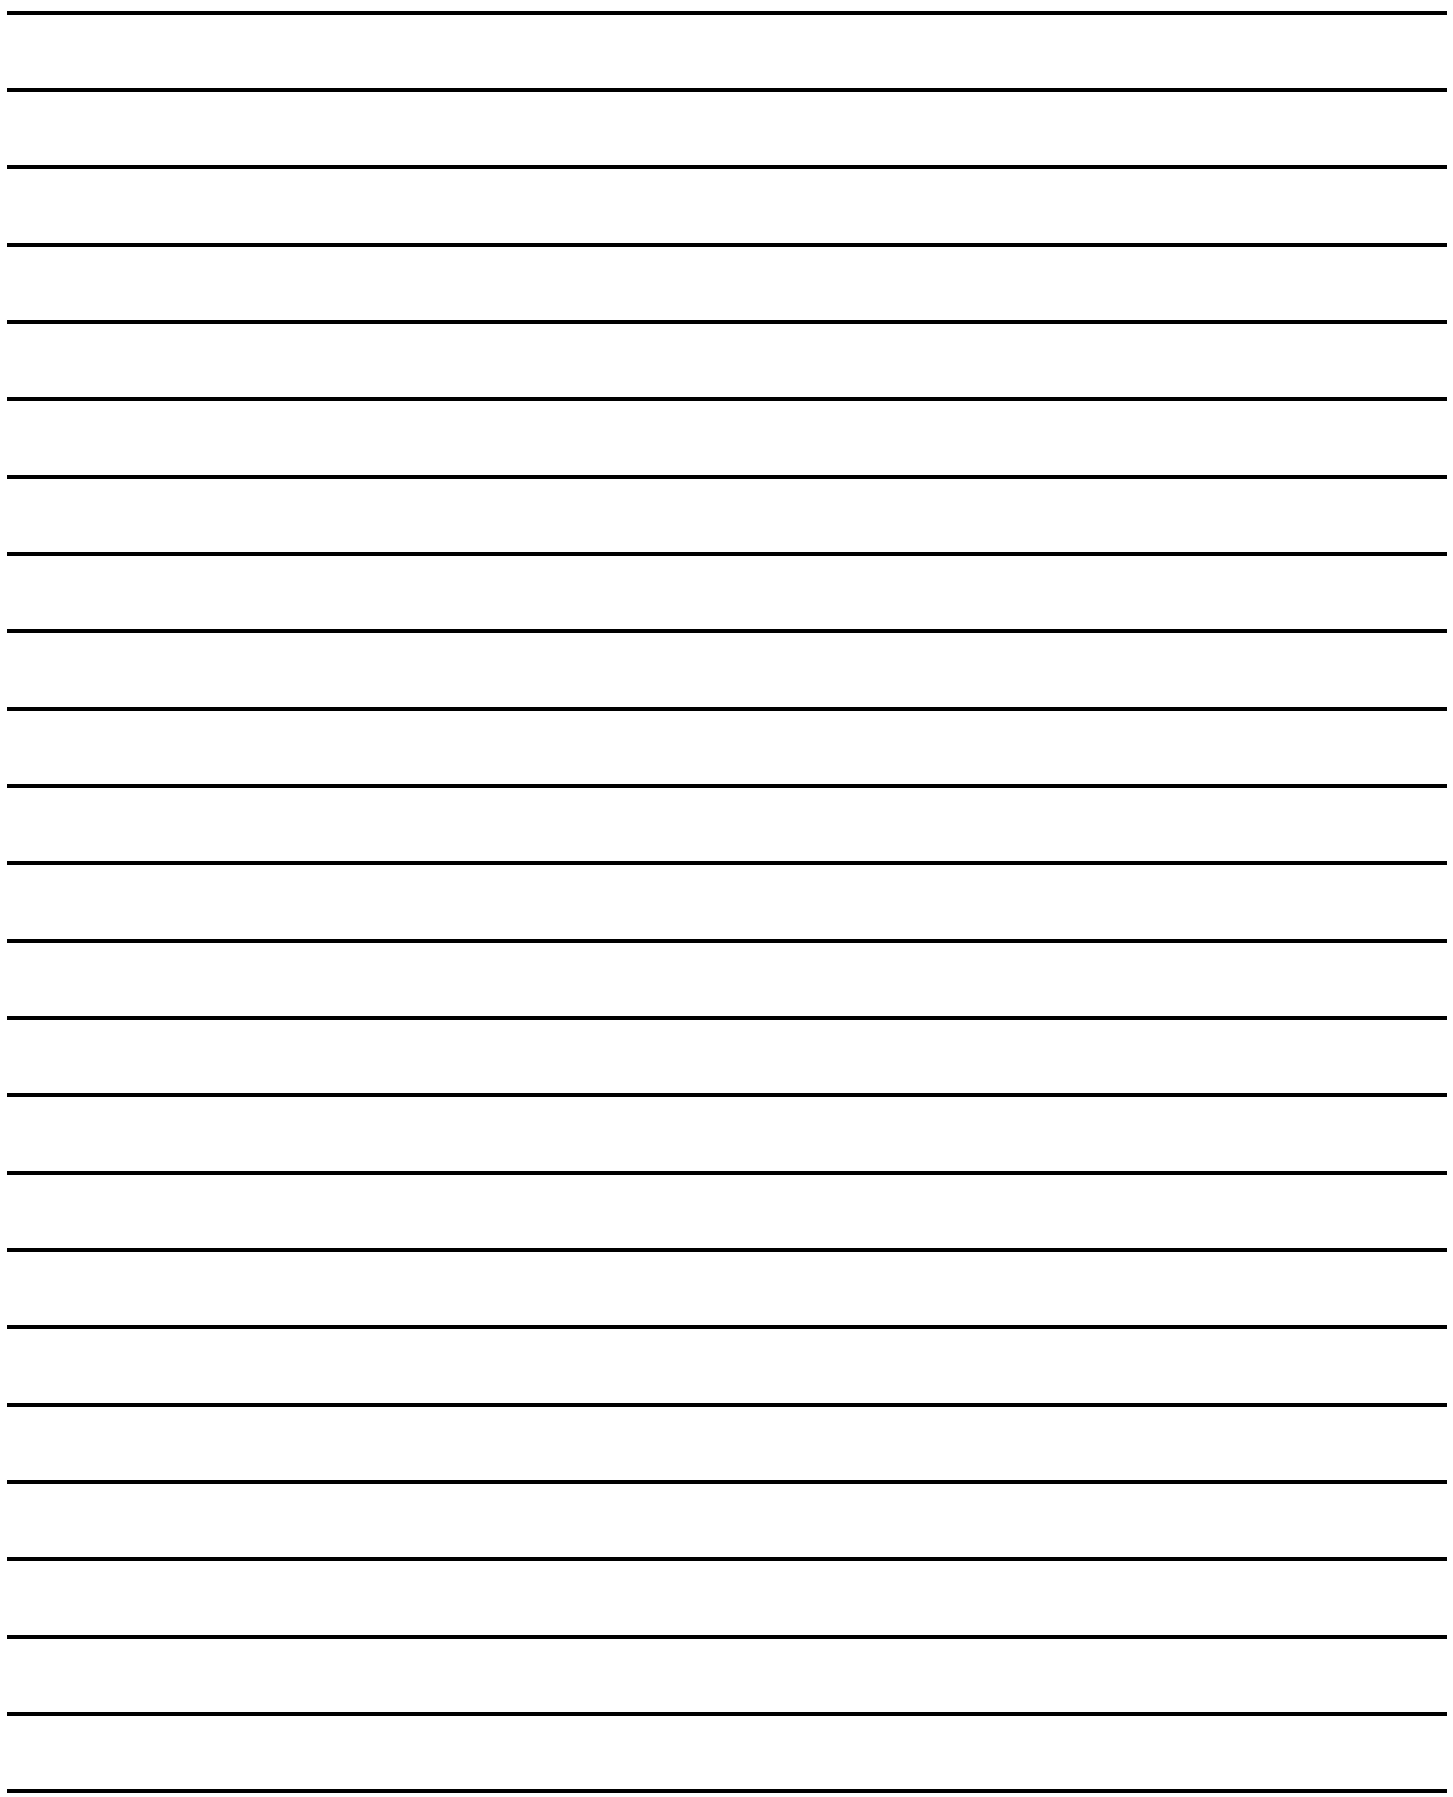

Blank lined page for writing.

Lined writing area consisting of 22 horizontal lines.

Lined writing area consisting of 20 horizontal lines.

A series of 20 horizontal lines for writing.

